Hello ICHO Members and Friends!

The ICHO office wishes you a joyful and peaceful holiday season, spent in good health, with friends, family and loved ones. To all our Curly horses, we send good wishes and that extra handful of love that they all deserve.

At the ICHO office, it has been very busy! Bunny and Sheryl are always vigilant to keep up with registrations, labs, and paperwork. We are very grateful for the work these ladies give daily to serve our Curly community. We are extra grateful for the abundant research by Dr. Wilkinson and associates, and the time and travel that he generously gives. And a special thank you to the show committee of Bunny, Sheryl, Janice and I, so we can all showcase our wonderful Curlies everywhere. If you haven't entered our annual summer virtual show, the next one starts in about six months, join us! Inside, you will see the results of the second annual 2022 ICHO Virtual Curly Horse Show.

And, INTRODUCING, the new fun virtual show for Curly coats, see the details within this gazette!

Wishing you happy reunions with friends and family for the holiday season, a Curly hug also.

Sincerely, Joan Henning and Angel Leggs, ICHO President

Please enjoy our special presentation by Tamea Denault of her Vaulting Team! Curlies, as we all know, can do everything! Here is Sue (16 years old) she is the 5th curly vaulting horse I have trained. (My first was Yellow Storm (Yellow Hornet line), still vaulting strong at 28.) The FEI discipline of Vaulting is gymnastics and dance choreographed to music on a moving horse. Here are some of our young vaulters at all three gaits. They have been vaulting between 11-6 months! Sue and the vaulters make an awesome team! enjoy! Coach Tamea.
